HIGHER CALL IS ACCEPTED.

Rev. J. F. Vines to Take Charge of Central Baptist Church at Chattanooga.

EXCELLENT WORK DONE HERE.

Rev. J. F. Vines' resignation as pastor of the Baptist church at this city and of the Goshen Baptist church at Glendale was to go into effect October 1. He has accepted a call from the Central Baptist church at Chattanooga, Tenn., which has a membership of about 400 and is one of the best fields in that State. The call was received by Rev. Vines on August 28 and he accepted it as it pays a higher salary than the two pastorate he now holds.

Rev. Vines tendered his resignation as pastor of the Goshen Baptist church on August 30 and on last Friday evening he announced his resignation as pastor of the Baptist church of this city. He will proceed to Chattanooga on September 13 and 17 and will deliver his last sermon in this city on September 30.

It is with extreme regret that Rev. Vines' two congregations have received the news of his resignation, as they are to lose to give him up. He has done most excellent work for both churches and has won the esteem and friendship of the members of his congregations and of other denominations as well. While all wish they could retain him, yet they are glad that he has been honored with a higher call and wish him every success and encouragement in his new field.

Rev. Vines took charge of the local Baptist church in June, 1901, and of the church at Glendale in June 1902, as the successor of Rev. W. B. Rutledge. He came to this city from the West End Baptist church at Asheville, N. C., to which Rev. Rutledge succeeded him, and attended the Baptist Theological Seminary until June of this year, when he was graduated. While Rev. Vines has had charge of the church at Glendale nearly 100 new members have joined with the church and a beautiful house of worship has been built and is almost paid for. Good work in the local church also has been done. The remainder of the debt on the parsonage has been liquidated, a fine vacation for the church has been purchased and the membership increased by more than fifty. Besides assisting in the general work of the church, Rev. Vines has been most helping part in Cloverport's local option fight last year and in all movements inaugurated for the public good. He is a diligent and interesting talker, an able expositor of the Scriptures, a minister of peace and power. For a minister just out of the Seminary his record has been most excellent and his every success is well deserved.

In social, as well as religious circles, both Rev. and Mrs. Vines have been popular and the good wishes of the citizens of Cloverport follow them to their new home in the South.

R. F. D. in Hancock County.

Rural free delivery in Hancock county (route No. 1) will commence October 1. The route is 20 1/2 miles long and will serve a population of 707, out from Harwellville. Mail will leave the Harwellville post office early every morning, except Sunday, and will go down the river road to Morrison on horseback, to Fawcett and Utility and then back to Harwellville. As David Duncan, of Harwellville, was the only applicant as carrier it is supposed he will be appointed.

The Glad Hand to Voters.

Col. Morris B. Belknap, Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky, will leave to-day on a trip in the States on which he will continue to extend the glad hand to the voters of the different counties. Col. Belknap will visit the county fairs, as he did on the last trip, and his programme this time will carry him first to Barbourville, next to Middletown, and then to Somerset, beyond which he has no definite plans, but will arrange his trip as the circumstances direct.—Wednesday's Courier-Journal.

AN ABLE REPRESENTATIVE.

S. H. McCracken Attends Painters' Convention as Foreman Painter of L. H. & St. L. Ry.

S. H. McCracken left Sunday for Chicago, Ill., to attend the Master Car and Locomotive Painters' convention of the United States and Canada. The convention opened in the Victoria Hotel at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning and will continue the remainder of the week. Mr. McCracken represents the Henderson Route at the convention as foreman of its paint shop in this city. He has been a member of the association for the last five years and has attended all of the annual meetings during that time. Last year he read a valuable and interesting paper, on the subject of cleaning passenger cars, before the convention. His ideas were original and have been adopted by a number of foreign painters. The paper was published in the News last week and Mr. McCracken was highly complimented on its merits.

While Mr. McCracken is in Chicago Mrs. McCracken and her children will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn, of Cincinnati, formerly of this city.

When you take Grove's Tasteless Kidney Pills, you are taking a medicine that is as pure as the water you drink. It is a medicine that is as pure as the water you drink. It is a medicine that is as pure as the water you drink.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.
With a "mily around expecting him to die and a son riding for life, 18 m. to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. W. H. Brown, of Louisville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvellous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and Grip give their matches. Write for a free trial bottle. Large bottles guaranteed bottles $5.00 and $10.00. Trial bottles free at Short & Haynes' drug store.

Low Water Boats Running.

On account of low water the large boats have had to tie up and the light drafters, which have been put into service. The Tarascon is the only one of the regular packets that is out. The steamers John W. Thomas and Henry Harley have taken the places of the Morning Star and the Tell City. River men have had better luck this year than last year. It is remembered that, for weeks, last year river navigation was practically suspended on the Ohio during the latter part of the summer and the early fall on account of low water.

Two Morts Are Released.

John P. Meredith and Luke Cave, of Grayson county, who have been in jail at Owensboro for several weeks charged with retailing whiskey without license, were released on bond last week. Their bonds were fixed at $300 and M. J. Meredith and J. B. Cave were their sureties. They returned to their homes in Grayson county. Both will be tried at the November term of the United States court.

Meeting With Success.

The Calor Oil Company, which will pipe gas from Meade and Hardin counties to Louisville, is meeting with success in securing the right of way. Eighteen miles of right of way in Jefferson county has been secured and practically the entire route from Meade and Hardin counties will cost something like $500,000 to build the pipe line to Louisville and the management expects to begin work on it in October.

Drilling New Oil Well.

H. T. Haynes, of Brandenburg, an experienced well driller, is superintending the erection of the derrick for the new oil well which will be sunk on the Fowler Neighborhood Oil Co. at Elizabethtown. By September 18 he expects to have the derrick completed and the necessary machinery set in position. The tools and machinery will be of the best make and the new company will drill to a finish.

Hancock Teachers' Institute.

The Hancock county teachers' institute was in session at Harwellville last week. The institute opened Monday under favorable circumstances. It was conducted by Prof. M. H. Newton, of Owensboro, addressed the institute Monday night.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE BURG.

Robertson Bros., of Glendene, to Engage in the General Livestock Business.

MRS. JOLLY SUES FOR $25,000.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Robertson Bros., of Glendene, have purchased of Thomas Blythe his lot and stable, located opposite Hook's mill. They will use the stable now on part of the lot, for mules, and will erect a large stable on the remaining portion of the lot. Mr. Robertson will move here from Glendene and run the stables. The consideration paid Mr. Blythe was $800.

Brings Suit For Damages.

Mrs. Susan Jolly, administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Blon Jolly, has instituted a suit for damages in the Breckenridge Circuit Court, against the L. H. & St. L. Ry. Co. It will be remembered that Mr. Jolly was struck by a train last May, between Stanton and Irvington, and almost instantly killed. The train was a special, carrying Knight Templars to Owensboro. The petition alleges that his death was caused by the gross negligence, carelessness and reckless conduct of the agents and servants of the railroad, and asks for damages in the sum of $25,000. George W. Jolly, of Owensboro, and N. M. Mercer are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

Opens a Private School.

Nominations in Hancock.

The Republicans of Hancock county assembled at Harwellville last week and nominated Robert Stewart for representative and W. H. Kyler for Circuit Court Clerk.

Has Position in the South.

Miss Alice Mattingly, of Uniontown, formerly of this city, left Tuesday for the southern part of Mississippi, where she has accepted a position.

ONLY ONE IS THE DEBTOR.

Judgment Given by Judge Wells Against Perfect Combustion Co.

OTHER CASE IS DISMISSED.

The suits of twenty-nine former employees of the Patton brick yard against the Perfect Combustion Co., of America, and the Central Clay Product Co. for wages for labor performed, were tried before Judge Judge Wells Monday afternoon. A number of witnesses testified and the trial consumed two hours. Judge Wells dismissed the case against the Central Clay Product Co., without prejudice and gave judgment to the plaintiffs against the Perfect Combustion Co., of America. If execution has to be levied, it will be on the Brice railroad tunnel kiln at the Patton yard, as that is the only property there belonging to that company.

Geo. C. Patton, nominal president of the Central Clay Product Co., was present as its representative and had V. G. Babbage for his counsel. In the evidence it came out that E. C. Brice and sole control of the brick yard before May 13, as president of the Perfect Combustion Co., of America, and that the claims against the two companies were for labor performed since that date. To expedite matters, Babbage and H. C. Murray, attorneys for the plaintiffs, admitted that Brice had employed some of the plaintiffs and tried to prove in their argument that Mr. Patton was the agent of Brice's company, in order to get the Perfect Combustion Co., into court, as it had no representative present. Mr. Patton stated that he was not the company's agent, but, if by law, Mr. Brown could show that he had been, though unwittingly on his part, he desired also to get Brice's company into court. The case then rested with the court and the above decision was rendered.

Has Sold a Pile of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for more than twenty years and it has given entire satisfaction. I have sold a pile of it and can recommend it highly.—Joseph McElhinney, Linton, Iowa. You will find his remedy a good friend when troubled with a cough or cold. It always affords quick relief and is pleasant to take. For sale by Short & Haynes.

Offer $1,000 for Steel Barge.

The coal combine is offering $1,000, we understand, to anyone who will find the lost barge of steel rails that sank somewhere between Hogg's Point and Troy, the one lost when the J. B. Finley's tow went to pieces.—Cannelton Telephone.

Distress After Eating Cured.

Judge W. T. Holland, of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by All Druggists.

Mrs. C. C. Stewart Dead.

Harwellville, Ky., Sept. 2.—Mrs. C. C. Stuart, an estimable woman, is dead at her home near here. Only recently she lost her only daughter, who was killed in a horse race. Mrs. Stuart was the wife of "Bud" Stuart, one of the best known of the county's Democrats.

Dissolve Partnership.

Irrington, Ky., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—The general store of Marshall & Bandy have, by mutual consent, dissolved partnership, and the present style of the firm is Charles Marshall.

AT THE ENCAMPMENT.

Women Will Be Barred As Guests--2nd and 3rd State Regiments to Participate

There will be no women at the camp of combined maneuvers at West Point, as guests. Gen. Bates has issued an order to this effect, and has so informed Adjutant General Murray.

At a conference between Gen. Murray and the leading officers of the state guard it was decided to take the Second and Third regiments and the Louisville battalion on the West Point encampment. They will go in camp on September 20.

Moses, D. P. Curry and C. B. Norton, of the Commercial Club, of Louisville, have made a proposition to Capt. W. W. Hite that several steamers be stationed in the river near the West Point maneuver grounds. These boats will be used as floating hotels at which visitors to the maneuvers can obtain board.

The first soldiers who will participate in the maneuvers arrived at West Point last week and more will be arriving every day. Most of the necessary preparations have been made for them and the camp will be in readiness when they arrive.

The encampment of the regular soldiers will be held from September 25 to October 10, and of the militia from September 30 to October 10. There will be small details forwarded for preliminary work in each department, but no considerable body of troops is expected before September 30. The two batteries of artillery and four companies of infantry from Fort Sheridan, near Chicago, will start about September 15, and march through to West Point.

An earnest effort will be made by the citizens of Louisville and West Point to nurse President Roosevelt several days at the maneuvers.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by All Druggists.

Adopt New System.

The Adams Express company has inaugurated a new system of indemnity limit against loss through carelessness or dishonesty on the part of its agents and messengers by insuring them in a bond company of its own. The new company, while under the control of the Adams Express company, will be a separate institution. The system went into effect Tuesday.

McCLANAHAN--HAMBLETON.

Popular Young People of This City to be Married Thursday, Sept. 17.

KEIL-HAMBLETON WEDDING.

The marriage of Mr. Clifton Towce McClanahan to Miss Annie Amanda Hamblenton will take place in this city at the Lucile Memorial Presbyterian church, Thursday, September 17, at 9 o'clock a. m. Immediately after the ceremony they will leave on the 10-10 train for Henderson, where they will spend several days with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McClanahan, after which they will return to Cloverport and begin house-keeping in the Dr. Moorman residence on the hill.

Mr. McClanahan is the well-known manager of the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company's exchange in this city. He took charge of the exchange in February, 1902, and has performed the duties of his position to the satisfaction of his employers and their patrons. He is a young man of integrity, and industry and is popular in this city and in Harlinsburg, where he has charge of another exchange of the Cumberland Company.

Miss Hamblenton is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Adelle Hamblenton. She is one of Cloverport's most popular and lovable young ladies and has a host of friends.

The wedding of Mr. Charles Edward Keil, of Wehauken, N. J., to Miss Elizabeth Watkins Hamblenton, of this city, will take place at the home of the bride, Mrs. Mary Adelle Hamblenton, tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. T. F. Walton, former pastor of the Lucile Memorial Presbyterian church, officiating. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Keil will leave on a bride tour to Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York. They will return to Cannelton, Pa., where Mr. Keil is superintendent of a large cement factory, and reside in the future.

Dr. Caley May Recover.

Glennwood, Iowa, Sept. 4, 1903.—Mr. J. D. Babbage, Dear Sir:—I have just received the last issue of the News. It was true about Mr. Caley getting hurt in a runaway. He was hurt on August 31. He was picked up on ambulances and taken to the hospital, where his wound was dressed. He was badly cut and bruised and the doctors thought there was no chance for him. He is getting along nicely now and the doctors think he will recover.

Won't Pay Increased Rates.

It is reported that a number of farmers in the vicinity of Tobinsport, who recently had telephone placed in their homes, are having them taken out because the company has raised the rate per month from $1. to $1.65. The farmers say they will not pay the increased rates.—Cannelton Enquirer.

The Class That Make Good Lodges.

"Cloverport lodge of Masons is made up of the class of men that make good lodges. To show their long-headedness they cleared $400 on a barbecue on the 30th of this month.—Sunday's Owensboro Messenger.

Harry Riley, the Louisville shell game man in jail at Cannelton, was released on a $500 bond last Wednesday to appear at the November term of court. Riley failed or refused to escape with the other three men several weeks ago.

Road Needs Working.

Webster, Ky., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—The Webster and Harlinsburg road, a much traveled and very important road, is needing work very badly.

Sounds the keynote of the Democratic State Campaign.

Masterly Speech by Kentucky's Executive at Winchester, September 5th.

The Following is the Text of Gov. Beckham's Opening Speech on Saturday.

I welcome the opportunity which this occasion presents to me. I have spent some time at hand for the democratic party, and I have been able to see that it is a party of the people, and that it is a party of the future.

On our part, I think that the contest shall be an aggressive, not a defensive one, and that the people shall be thoroughly acquainted with the issues involved, and that in the full light of public view the democratic party shall stand for the policy which we seek, which we demand, and which we believe to be the only policy which will save the state from the dark recesses of a corrupt and dishonest administration.

We have nothing to conceal, we invite a full and fair investigation of our record, and we stand before the people upon that record, believing implicitly in the honesty of our cause. We know that the people of Kentucky, their love of honesty and courage, their hatred of fraud and deception, will not allow us to begin this campaign with no righting as to the result. We are determined to stand up and assume entire responsibility for the evil record of the administration in this state.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

BRECKENRIDGE COUNTY

For Circuit Court Clerk Breckenridge
County.

W. SHERMAN BALL,
Nominée of the Republican Party.

For Representative of Breckenridge
County.

MAT. P. PAYNE,
Nominée of the Republican Party.

The whistles of our factories make sweet music on the air.

Belknap, Ball, McCorman and business.
How does this combination strike you?

Our pockets are not very full of money but our soul is full of enthusiasm for Cleveland and for Breckenridge county. It's not the men with pockets full of money that build up towns and communities, but it's the men with faith and little money, and who are not afraid to invest it.

We print the opening speeches of both candidates for governor in this issue. Read and form your opinion as to the fitness of the two men for the place. If you want a business man's government of State affairs it seems to you can get that kind of a government in Col. Belknap or if you want a government run on purely political lines Governor Beckham is your man.

Prof. Oette for the first two opening days made a fine impression on judicious patrons. Our advice to the pupils is to do what he tells you to do, and do it at once, and in order.
The patrons can do much to help him and the school along. Visit the school as a good word for it and the teacher.
There is not a teacher but what will do his or her best for the success of both pupil and school. They should have the hearty co-operation of the parents.

Dr. Milton Board, of Hardinsburg, was in the city Tuesday. He said politics was very quiet around the capital city. That the campaign had not opened up yet but would in a short while. He spoke very enthusiastically of the Democratic outlook. He said it was only a question of majorities. Breckenridge county, he said, would go Democratic by 150. He said his campaign committee was in splendid shape. Had all the money they wanted to do business on, so was perfectly easy along that line.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

To Be Voted On at the November Election.

CHAPTER 50.

An act to provide for an amendment to Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky.

"The General Assembly may, by general laws only, authorize CITIES OR TOWNS OF ANY CLASS to provide for taxation for municipal purposes, on personal property, tangible and intangible, based on income, license or franchise, in lieu of an ad valorem tax thereon;
"Provided, cities of the first class shall not be authorized to omit the imposition of an ad valorem tax on such property of any steam railroad, street railway, ferry bridge, gas, water, heating, telegraphic or electric power company."

Big Campaign Opening.

Plans are being made by the Republican party for a great demonstration at the formal opening of the campaign by Col. Belknap at Monfortville Saturday. Jim Jantret, the famous bar-becuer of Lexington, has been engaged to serve the barbecue on the occasion and a special train of representative Republicans, 500 strong, will go from Louisville and thousands of people will attend from adjoining counties. Gen.
Simon B. Beckner will make the introductory speech, in which he will only line the objections to the present administration. Col. Morris B. Belknap the candidate for Governor, will then address the crowd.

Delivery Steadily Improving.

More tomatoes were packed at the Pilk Packing Company's factory last week than the week before last. The amount of the fruit delivered has been increasing daily since the first of it was brought in by the farmers. Up until last, Thursday 35,000 cases had been put up. This week the management of the factory expect to have enough tomatoes to make a steady run.

To Attend Purdue University.

Joe Logan, Jr., of Rockport, Ind., formerly of this city, was here last week visiting his parents. Thursday he will leave for Purdue University, Indiana, where he expects to enter the senior class in pharmacy. He attended the Louisville School of Pharmacy last year and requires only one year to complete his course.

The great number of dyspeptics is increasing daily. This is due to hurried eating and lack of care in selecting proper food.

There is nothing more effective to the run down digestive organs than pure pepsin, and while pepsin alone corrects the overworked digestive organs, a tonic such as pure pepsin wine is also necessary to keep them in this condition.
Wm. Bruns, of Rockport, Ind., has found in all drug stores, combines in exact proportions the purest pepsin and richest port wine. It is highly recommended by thoughtful physicians.—For sale at A. J. Fisher.
Small size 50 cents, large size $1.00.

Chas. Ryan Buys an Interest.

Victor Matthews, the well known barber on east Main street, has sold his interest in the barber shop of Matthews & Ferril, to Chas. Ryan and will go west to look for a location. Mr. Matthews has been in the barber business in the same stand for the past fifteen years.—Saturday's

Had a Delightful Trip.

The party of twenty-five that went from here to Wyandotte Cave, near Leavenworth, Ind., last Monday afternoon, returned Thursday night on the steamer Tascaron. They arrived at Leavenworth Monday night and spent Tuesday in the cave. They had left the John W. Thomas, on the up trip, before the boat struck a log and struck a hole in her hull, at Buckle's Landing, Ind. All were delighted with the trip and a number, who had seen Mammoth Cave, were more pleased with it and considered it more beautiful. Those who went on the trip are thinking of getting up a party to go to Mammoth Cave in the near future.

150 TONS IN THREE WEEKS.

Messrs. Phelps Have Taken Big Quantities of Mussel Shells From Bed of Ohio.

THE INDUSTRY IS GROWING.

This is a little shell industry at the point is at present, but is expected to increase when the fall rains begin and the river rises. At the present stage of water the gathering of mussel shells is made difficult to some extent as the mussel sink in the bottom of the river. When the river is at a twenty-five or thirty foot stage better catches can be made with the crowd-fish gear used by the fishermen.

W. B. Phelps, and son, D. B. Phelps the Illinois buyers, have, eighteen boats, equipped with the necessary fishing tackle, which they operate at this point, between Morton's saw-mill and the lower bend of the Ohio. When all the conditions are favorable they run all their boats, but only eight or ten when the fishing season is not at its best. When all their boats are running they employ twenty-five men, eight-men to manage the boats and seven at the cooking and separating tables.

The best mussel shells for making pearl buttons are known as "nigger heads." All those that are round and are not of the proper size and form have to be culled at the separating tables. W. B. Phelps has been in the business at this point since last winter and his son has been since August in previous years. At this point, Phelps shipped several carloads and large loads of shells to the button factories. He has been selling principally to the button factory at Muscatine, Iowa.

Between August 1st and September 3rd Messrs. Phelps took from the bed of the river, boiled and culled about 150 tons of mussel shells, the value of which will run into hundreds of dollars. "Nigger heads" are piled in big bins in the river bank near the old pier and below town at a distance of the piles of shells have the appearance of big heaps of crushed limestone.

The above will give an idea of the size of the industry at this point. As the markets are drawing near and the supply scarce, the price of the shells will, in all probability, receive no attention next year, be operated on a larger scale and give employment to many more people.

Strength and vigor come of good food, daily digested. "Force" is ready to serve wheat and barley food, adds no burden but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

Only Eight Months' Term.

The Hawsville public school opened Monday for an eight months' term. Prof. Thomas H. Smith, principal, came to Hawsville highly recommended and a successful term is predicted.

The Deadly Trail

Of disease is often the trail marked by a woman's gown. A recent investigation showed a host of microbes, including those of influenza, consumption and a dozen other varieties, gathered in the trail of a woman's dress.

The microbes are everywhere, but it is prey are the weak and feeble people whose blood is "poor" and digestion "weak." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition and purifies the blood.

It strengthens the body by increased nutrition to resist disease and throw off its influence. It is a body by increased nutrition to resist disease and throw off its influence. It is a body by increased nutrition to resist disease and throw off its influence.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A few of these effective laxative pills do not get the pill habit.

It is of the nature of a confession that the conviction, in three months from the time of the assassination, and yet he has been over three and a half years since William G. Brown was murdered, and only one man of all those who conspired in the assassination has been hanged by the law. Mr. Distinguished opponent, not only in the republicans have been talking a great deal about giving us "business" administration. We hope they do not mean the same kind of "business" that their last candidate for governor, Taylor, gave us. We have had just enough of that, and the people of Kentucky are tired of it.

COL. BELKNAP

And Judge W. M. Beckner Greeted by Over 9,000 people at Barboursville.

Both Talk Along Commercial Lines And are Cheered by The Big Crowds.

Col. Belknap Outlines His Policy Along Lines of Supply And Demand.

Barboursville, Ky., Sept. 3.—An immense crowd, numbering over 9,000 people, was present here today to welcome Col. Morris B. Belknap and Judge W. M. Beckner, Republican nominees respectively for Governor and Attorney General.

Col. Belknap appeared on the streets early this morning, and wherever he went he was quickly surrounded by a crowd eager to meet him. In company with William Carson Black, son of John Black, Col. Belknap visited all the business men in town and became acquainted with those from the country.

Throng at Fair Grounds.

At 10:30 o'clock the Belknap party went to the fair grounds, where the great throng of people had gathered to hear Col. Belknap speak. When the party entered the grounds the people crowded into the amphitheater until it was packed to overflowing. Several thousand stood in the hot sun during the speaking. Mr. Black made a short speech. He spoke in high terms of Col. Belknap and Judge Beckner. He was cheered frequently by the enthusiastic crowd.

Col. Belknap began speaking at 11 o'clock. When he stepped out before the crowd cheers went up all over the grounds.

"We want to see and hear our next Governor," people shouted everywhere.

Col. Belknap's Speech.

Col. Belknap was repeatedly cheered. He spoke as follows:

It is a great pleasure to find myself once more facing the people of the Kentucky mountains. My cordial reception at London last week made me more than anxious to return among those I had the pleasure of meeting there as well as to make the acquaintance of those I feel that I have been a Kentuckian long enough, and interested in Kentucky affairs to a sufficient extent, to be "home folks" with you all. We recognize that the bond which draws us together this time is one of mutual interest. It is not one that requires explanation by any subtle sophistry of language or any tedious exposition of abstract principles.

I am not in the position of an office seeker, for I already have a job, and it is not a small one. I am simply ambitious (as I think any true Kentuckian may be) to gain such honor as may come from serving my State along the honest commercial lines of supply and demand.

I claim there is a demand for an honest administration of our public affairs as a man would manage his private business. I am familiar with the requirements of such a business, and am not afraid of the responsibility and the work that it entails.

We all possess a sentimental attachment for this good old state of ours. We feel that the best sort of government is none too good for her, and the effort now is a plain and simple one, that is, to put her in the hands of those who will cherish and honor her with the same lofty spirit that a man shows to the woman to whom he is devoted.

But, you say, commercially considered, things have not been bad in Kentucky for the past few years. Thanks to the management of our national affairs that is true. But we have, after all received only a small proportion of what I contend is due us. Where we have got our thousands, our neighbors have reaped their tens of thousands, with natural advantages no greater than ours. In studying the causes it is reasonable upon very simple grounds, namely, the failure to get the profit on the higher grades of merchandise manufactured from products that we ourselves furnish, whose conversion takes place in other States under more favorable conditions.

Let me give you an excellent example. In every car load of coal we ship out of this section there are two general profits, an actual and a potential one. The actual one is that paid to me by the purchaser of the coal. The potential one is the profit which the purchaser will reap upon converting the coal into steam. The chances are he is not buying it to make a bonfire. He puts it under a steam boiler, and the result is possibly a washing machine, a motor, an electric motor, or one of many articles of finished merchandise. The profit in making these articles, if the manufacturer understands his business, is far greater than the profit the miner gets on his coal. This larger profit Kentucky does not get.

Thousands Where Others Get Ten Fold.

Let me use another example. A tree is standing on our hills. It is worth some money. Cut it down—it is worth the original amount plus the cost of selling it. Transport it to the saw mill and cut it into lumber—two more profits added to it. It is now a plank and has an actual profit composed of four minor profits but it also possesses, as in the case of the car load of coal, a potential profit greater than all of these four. That is the possibility of being converted into furniture, undergoing a transformation that will make it totally unrecognizable to us and get sold back to us at many times the price at which we sold it to the manufacturer who converted it. Kentucky does not get this profit, and it is this loss that makes true the statement made at the beginning of the argument that we get but thousands where others get their tens of thousands.

Why We Get the Cheese Parings.

Now, why do we get the only cheese parings? Because the big profit is gathered in by a class of men who constitute what is known as manufacturing talent. These men have peculiar characteristics of their own. They are not lawyers, they are not politicians, and as a rule they consider that the less they have to do with either of these classes of men the better off they are. Their aim in life is to establish a home where they can live happily with their wives and raise their families. They are studious men and carefully consider the conditions where they can live to the best advantage. They naturally want to have advantages for their wives and children in the shape of the best intellectual opportunities, especially common schools and personal safety. A honest expenditure of public funds and honest count of their labors is their highest heaven in deciding with them where to locate.

These people are possessors of means, when they invest in permanent form in the shape of factories and homes, and in making these investments they carefully consider the probability of their efforts to build up their surroundings, increasing the value of their investments. Where they buy a home for $2,500 they hope in the course of ten years to find it in the midst of a flourishing town, so that they can realize a profit on their investment.

We know very well that these conditions do not exist in Kentucky today. We know very well that they must exist before we can hope to be the commonwealth which our natural advantages entitle us to be.

Pointing the Way.

The problem then is: How can these conditions be brought about? Perhaps you will say that now comes the time for the candidate to assert himself and say: "By turning out the men that are at present in office and putting in men who will do the job of the old political route—a roadway that has been cut into deep ruts by the political traffic of the past. In many cases it has proved most effective. As to whether it will fail or not, that I would rather let you judge. But I would rather ascribe the change to a recognition of our own individual interest. It is no longer a case of what are "you" going to do about it, but what are "we" going to do about it. Not what will my neighbor do, but what must I do? Not what the candidate at the head or at the bottom of the ticket will do, but how will we make the candidate serve the good of the State after we have given him the office?

A member of our family is taken suddenly ill. Perhaps the road is unknown to us. We come to a point where the road forks. Shall we take the right or the wrong one? The decision means life or death perhaps. A man is standing there who can tell us. "Follow me," he says. "I have known as him whether he can make a speech or not, and whether when he is at home he always goes in and tells the cook 'good morning' or not? Or would we simply ask him to point out the way, and with a nod of thanks proceed as he directs? Why not use the same common sense in our government? All we require is the directing hand to the place where we may procure the necessary restoratives. These we ourselves must apply to the patient.

Faith in Kentucky.

I have, as you know, great faith in the State of Kentucky. I realize that by an unfortunate series of events she has gotten herself on the list to be "snatched," and I want to see that classification changed.

I have met during my brief campaign a sufficient number of the strong conservative element of our State to realize that they are with me. It is this which I have termed the new Kentucky spirit in the "old Kentucky home." It establishes the important fact that the necessary conditions for our new birth exists, and I beg of you that you understand and acquit yourselves like men—not for my sake, but for your own sake.

Grasp the Opportunities.

Into other hands are passing opportunities which we might as well grasp as not. They mean days of great prosperity and comfort to our families. They mean peace and justice within our borders. They mean over-coming our wrongs and doing the fair thing by our fellow man. It is not one man's work, but the work of us all.

Within the past year into the departments of our National Government has been merged a new one of Commerce. We are not acquainted with the general sentiment when we incorporate the commercial idea in our own State affairs.

Unless there is some unseen law in the logic of the situation, Kentucky affairs will profit clearly by better arrangement with good business methods demand. We have enough law. In fact, we would get along better than we do if we kept the Ten Commandments just as transcribed upon the tables of stone. Our standing in the world would be very much better if we would make a beginning by keeping the sixth, and as Judge Humphrey expressed it, "put the stamp of Cain upon whomsoever violated it, so that henceforth he should be an outcast in our midst."

Making laws does not make a nation. We must have the co-ordinate branches of the judiciary and the executive. They form horse, cart and harness, a combination which must be effective individually to carry us forward. Rotten spokes, a kirk tied with a paper string, or a horse without legs, any one of them will let up our transportation facilities. I beg of you that you see to it that one as good as the other, and all are the best. There is no reason why they should not be so except our own indifference, and that we must overcome.

Get Value Received for Taxes.

It is an old commercial saw that "birds will sing and hares will run." When we pay taxes we are supposed to buy government. If we don't get value received for our taxes, the bargain is against us, and we will go broke just as surely as the merchant who pays too much for his goods will eventually close his doors.

We must take care of our people and figure up the amount of taxes we have to pay, and then in the next column add up what we get for them. If we find that for our hard earned dollars we are simply feeding a lot of grafters when our State is crying out for better buildings, better schools and better institutions, then the buying proposition is going against us, and the day of trouble is at hand.

Business Talk.

In olden times, when the traveling salesman, or drummer, was a novelty on the road, he was generally selected by his employer for his facility in carrying a good story from one store to another. With this coin he many times bought orders at good prices for better buildings, better schools and better institutions, then the buying proposition is going against us, and the day of trouble is at hand.

Belknap on Commercialism.

When Belknap finished John G. Matthews introduced Judge Beckner. Again the crowd cheered. Judge Beckner made one of his characteristic speeches. He told why he left the Democratic for the Republican party and its principles. He touched on commercialism, and said the party in power did not want to see the State developed and new people come in. He spoke at length on the neglect to provide funds for the St. Louis Exposition. He said the day was coming when people would want to stay in Kentucky instead of wanting to leave, as many do now.

Judge Beckner finished at 12:30 o'clock, and the party went at once to the dining room, where they partook of dinner. Just after dinner the party visited the many attractions on the grounds. Col. Belknap shaking hands all the time. When the races were called the party went to the band stand and met all horsemen

Judge of District Court Plainly Speaks His Mind.

It is with pleasure that I give my hearty endorsement to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the most successful remedy that I know of for the weakened condition of the digestive organs which excessive heat or overwork sometimes brings, causing indigestion, sick headache, a disagreeable or bitter taste in the mouth, sleepless nights and a complication of unnatural conditions, making one feel sick all over. Your remedy is scientifically prepared and well calculated to renovate the entire system, cleansing and vitalizing the blood and assisting the stomach to perfect assimilation of the food, which will soon restore health and harmony.

Sincerely yours,
E. E. Willard
Judge of 10th District, Duval County, Florida.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" restores the long lost appetite; it strengthens the weak stomach and corrects the impaired digestion; it promotes the flow of digestive juices and facilitates the assimilation of the life-giving elements of the food into the blood. When the blood is pure and rich, old inert tissues are torn down, carried off and excreted, and new, healthy muscular tissues replace them. In this way it puts on healthy flesh up to the normal weight and fortifies one against all disease-breeding germs. It allays on the grounds.

Bigger Known Crowd.

Special trains ran all day, but the services were inadequate to transport the people. Large numbers of people came from all the neighboring towns, 300 from Pineville alone, and large numbers from the week counties of Clay, Leslie and Harlan. Today's meeting is admitted to be the greatest ever held in the county. At 2:30 o'clock the Belknap party left the fair grounds for the depot. They left on the 4:30 o'clock train for Middleboro. They will get to Somerset Friday. Campbell county fair Saturday and to Covington Monday.

Cancer Cured by Blood Balm—All Skin and Blood Diseases Cured.

Mrs. M. L. Adams, Fredonia, Alaska, Botanic Blood Balm which effectually cured an eating cancer of the nose and face. The same healed perfectly. Many doctors had given up her case as hopeless. Hundreds of cases of cancer, eating sores, suppurating swellings, etc., have been cured by Blood Balm. Among others, Mrs. B. M. Gurney, Warrior Stand, Ala. Her nose and lip were raw as lead, with offensive discharges from the eating sores. Doctors advised cutting, but it failed. Blood Balm healed the sores, and Mrs. Gurney was as well as ever. Botanic Blood Balm also cures eczema, itching humors, scabs and scales, bone pains, ulcers, offensive pimples, blood poison, caruncles, scurfs, rashes and bumps on the skin and all blood troubles. Drugists, $1.00 per large bottle. Sample of Botanic Blood Balm free and prepaid by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe trouble and send special medical advice sent in sealed letter. It is certainly worth while investigating such a remarkable remedy, as Botanic Blood Balm cures the most awful, worst and most deep-seated blood diseases.

Bright Prospects for Fair.

The Harlan county fair, which opened at Elizabethtown yesterday, promises to excel all former fairs held in that city, both in exhibits and attendance. The fair, for the first time in ten years, does not conflict with the Bowling Green fair, and for the first time in its history there will be no other fairs held in Kentucky during the same week. The fair will continue until Friday.

inflammation of the mucous membranes, soothes the cough, facilitates expectoration, and deepens the breathing, supplying the system with a much needed stock of oxygen. It drives out all impurities and disease germs.

$3,000 Forfeit!

Will be cheerfully paid, in lawful money of the United States, by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if they cannot show the original statement and signature of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing attesting the superior curative properties of their several medicines, and thus proving the genuineness and reliability of all the multitude of testimonials volunteered by grateful people, in their behalf.

"I feel it my duty to write you as I have received so much benefit from the use of your medicines," says Mrs. E. S. Souders of Glen, Ind. "I was troubled with torpid liver, indigestion, and nervous prostration, for about eighteen months and lost strength so that I was unable to do any work. Consulted several doctors but without receiving help. They advised me to have an operation for gall stones. I thought I would be the very last step I would take. I then sat down and wrote to you for advice, some five or six months ago, and have since been taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Can now say that I am well and able to do all my work, besides doing lots of weaving. In the last two months I have woven about four hundred yards of carpet and feel now that I will keep on with it as I like the weaving business so well. I took only eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets."

"I will be glad if I can say anything to those who are suffering as I did."

"I was taken sick nine years ago with fever," writes Mr. M. M. Wardwell, of Linwood, Leavenworth Co., Kans. "I had the doctor and he broke up the fever all right, but I took diarrhea right away; he couldn't cure it and it became chronic, and then he gave up the case. I got so weak with it and had piles so badly I couldn't lie down nor hardly sit up. Was that way two or three months; thought I would never be well again, but picked up one of Dr. Pierce's Menstrual Regulators. Took one of your description of catarrh of the stomach. I thought it hit my case. We had a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the house that I got for mother. You recommended it for catarrh of the stomach, so I began taking it. The one bottle nearly cured me. I got two bottles next time and took one and one-half and was well. I haven't been bothered with diarrhea since."

A FEW PENNIES will pay the expense of mailing Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume.
